

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR VISUAL ARTISTS

The Wyoming Arts Council and the University of Wyoming Art Museum are partnering on a series of events with artist, educator, advocate for artists, and editor Sharon Louden.

Artist Talk

Thursday, September 13 | 6 pm | UW Visual Arts building, room 111
Free and open to the public

Professional Development Workshop for Visual Artists

Saturday, September 15 | 10 am to noon | UW College of Education Auditorium
Free and open to the public

Sharon Louden (sharonlouden.com) will be conducting a 2-hour professional development workshop with guests, artist Wendy Red Star (wendyredstar.com) and curator and arts administrator Lisa Hatchadoorian, who will share how artists can create their own opportunities, establish and reach their goals. They will share stories of other artists who sustain their creative lives as models to replicate.

Live stream broadcasts will be shown at the following locations:

- Northwest College, Fagerberg Building, Room 70, Powell
- Central Wyoming College, Room HS100, Riverton
- Sheridan College, Edward Whitney Academic Center, Room 207, Sheridan
- Western Wyoming Community College, Room A101, Rock Springs
- Art321, 321 W. Midwest Ave., Casper
- AVA Community Art Center, 509 W. 2nd Street, Gillette
- Sublette County Public Library, Board Room, 155 S. Tyler Ave., Pinedale

Studio Visits
